DISCLAIMER

Applicants understand that they are responsible for obtaining all applicable governmental approvals necessary to operate their business in the city. Applicants further understand that their businesses must receive formal approvals and/or licenses from several city departments and, depending on the business, from state, county and Federal authorities before they can open their business. These licenses and approvals do not necessarily happen all at once or in sequence. License approval by one department within the city or by governmental entities does not guarantee that all license approvals necessary for opening your business will be obtained. Initiation of business planning approved construction activity or partially approved business operations shall be undertaken at the applicant's own risk that other required approvals will not be obtained and commencement of contemplated business operations fully approved. Applicants expending funds prior to obtaining all required licenses, permits and approvals do so at their own risk.

I have received a copy of this disclaimer from the City of Hamtramck.
