SECTION I: AGENDA ITEMS - For Discussion/Action/Information

- 1. Commission Chair Update and other Commission Business
 - Business
 - Peter resigned from the commission
 - Rumana said that she would like to have a co-chair, or to step down if two others would like to take over
 - Julie clarified that we have two open seats now
 - Rumana mentioned we are still opened to advisors as well, if someone is interested in joining in the work without becoming a commissioner
 - We need to send the agenda to the city to publish at least three days before the meeting
 - Next meeting is on the 1/5
- 2. Recycling Next Steps
 - Max said from the city perspective we need to solve trash first

- Natalie said that by bringing a new program in it can disrupt the status quo and get people to think more
 - City of Detroit launched a pilot program in four neighborhoods with a drop off center
 - The current program is opt-in, for free with education, $25 to join without
 - Green Living Science/Detroit renew a specific grant application each year for funding and it's granted each time
 - Michigan Recycling Coalition and RRS have been good support
 - Part 115 was just passed and will inform how counties will handle their waste and create solid waste management plans
 - 20 ambassadors throughout Detroit go door-to-door and to events sign people up and educate them
 - EGLE has tire scrap grants
 - Detroit has a weekly hazardous waste drop-off, the county has a few different spots
 - Wayne county CLEAN program
- Rumana asked about how to prioritizing grants
- Natalie said
 - Start small
 - The bigger grants require a highly developed plan
 - Start with The Recycling Partnership
 - Do a pilot program
 - Opt-in can lower contamination issues
 - Detroit is going to pilot an opt-out
- Max noted from the city perspective, we don't have the money to pay people to write grants, or to manage grants we would theoretically receive
- Alathea asked Natalie what the first step should be
- Natalie suggested looking first for gaps we can fill while figuring out what resources are needed
- Max suggested the commission figuring out challenges, gaps, impact, then report to the city so it can be included in the trash and litter report, which has a February 1st deadline
- Yvonne is the grant writer
 - EPA has a recycling grant for >$250k
 - EGLE Renew funding aren't open yet, but it has a match that the city would have to come up with
 - EGLE will have micro grants in the new year
- Recycling subcommittee will meet this month
